

Techorating Tips for the New Technology in Your Home (Carteret County News-Times)

More info...

(ARA) - In the current economic environment, many people are refocusing their priorities on family and home. Experts say more Americans are creating a home theater experience in their home instead of going out.

Productions worth a trip to Oregon (San Francisco Chronicle)

With so much good theater in the Bay Area, why travel 350 miles north to see a show at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival? The answer is easy: The drive is spectacularly beautiful (especially from Mount Shasta to the festival's home in Ashland, Ore.), and the...

Summer Sundays take root at the Vine theater (San Diego Union-Tribune)

Nestled among olive trees and bougainvillea, the Vine theater looks quintessentially Southern Californian. Enter the black box performance space, though, and you may be transported to another world, for instance, the marvelously edgy Berlin cabaret created last Sunday by choreographer Faith Jensen-Ismay, soprano Stacey Fraser and pianist Josh Tubaran.

Claudia Sternbach, July 5, 2009: The further adventures of Holden? (Santa Cruz Sentinel)

"No you didn't." "Yes I did." "Didn't." "Did." This was the conversation I had while walking home from a movie theater on New York City's Upper West Side a little more than year ago.
